

Educating students, families, and schools about the right to an education free from sexual harassment

Stop Sexual Assault in Schools is the first national nonprofit specifically created to address K-12 students' right to an education free from sexual harassment and assault.

What's unique about SSAIS?

- A comprehensive one-stop website for educating families, schools, journalists, lawmakers, and researchers, which features over 200 print and broadcast media reports, articles, contributions to books, education journals, and research projects
- Toolkits, presentations, and videos, free for download
- The innovative teen-friendly website resource and school/community project, SASH Club—Students Against Sexual Harassment
- Advocacy at the state and national levels as a member of the National Coalition for Women and Girls in Education
- Collaboration with the American Federation of Teachers and their Share My Lesson program
